

Oh death, I will be your death

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

Hosea 13:14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

Matthew 27:33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

God promised to destroy death, because he said «O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction», for this God made use of his Son Jesus Christ, taking into account that God is a creator God, but in this case Christ came to a dimension to destroy and then create a Genesis, because the place where he arrived was that of a skull, to the dimension of death, it reached its head and nailed the cross in the skull, that is, in the highest part, from the head Christ Jesus defeated death.

Hallelujah!

John 19:34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

And not only did he nail the cross giving a victory over death, but he also shed his blood fulfilling those prophetic words that David said:

2 Samuel 1:16 And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord's anointed.

Jesus Christ also spilled water and the following words about death were fulfilled:

Lamentations 3:54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

Thus Jehovah declared and fulfilled the word about death through his Son Jesus Christ having every victory over death. Hallelujah!